

DIPAK BARMA

Mr Dipak Barma is a graduate Mechanical Engineer from the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Kharagpur having completed his B. Tech (Hons) in 1975. He also completed a Residential Senior Management Programme from IIM - Ahmedabad.

He has a total of more than 46 years of experience. He worked in Blue Star Ltd for 15 years in the Project Engineering Division and the HVAC & R Projects Division. After his stint with Blue Star he set up Acrovent Systems Pvt Ltd - a Consultancy and Design-Build firm in the Buildings MEP Services sector, covering HVACR, PHE, Plumbing, Electrical, FDA, Fire Fighting and other services requirement. Acrovent is now in its 33rd year of operation. He has led the successful running of this organisation, employing senior Engineering / Commercial / Finance / other personnel ensuring professional approach.

He has been the National President of ISHRAE (Indian Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers). ISHRAE is a Society of over 14,000 professional HVAC&R Engineers spread all over India with Chapters in 42 Cities. He has conducted many technical sessions and lectures in Workshops as well as Class Room sessions on behalf of the Society. He is a Distinguished Lecturer for ISHRAE.

He has the honour of being awarded the "Exceptional Service Award" by the Society for his leadership in taking the Society through high growth levels. He has served the Society as member on the ISHRAE ADVISORY COUNCIL, ISHRAE NOMINATING COMMITTEE and CHAIRMAN OF THE HONOURS & AWARDS COMMITTEE. He is presently a member of the ISHRAE EDUCATION COMMITTEE and the President of the AMERICAN SOCIETY OF HEATING REFRIGERATING AND AIR CONDITIONING ENGINEERS (ASHRAE) EAST INDIA CHAPTER.